

Chief Executive Officer – The Jewish Home of Greater Harrisburg

The Jewish Home of Greater Harrisburg, an premier not-for profit CCRC, 64 bed licensed personal care home and 138 bed skilled nursing and rehabilitation facility located in southeastern central Pennsylvania is seeking a Chief Executive Officer.

The ideal candidate will be a proven Senior Living or Healthcare executive with high integrity, vision, superb interpersonal relations skills and outstanding leadership ability. This executive will bring a record of successful multi-service line enterprise management and leadership, including expertise in enterprise-wide oversight, financial management, strategic planning, team leadership, board relations, fund raising, joint ventures and collaborations, and external relations.

An experienced professional is sought, with a Bachelor's degree, preferably a Master's in Business, Healthcare, Finance, or a related discipline. The ideal leader will possess a minimum of ten (10) years of significant management experience, in the Senior Living field.

This executive will be a dynamic and compassionate leader, able to establish a vision and strategic direction, set priorities, understand the CCRC and Home and Community-Based Services models, meet financial targets, and be responsive to and respected by residents and their families, various Boards, staff members, residents and families, and the larger community.

Send resumes and salary requirements, in confidence, to:

William Adler, Esq., at bal@billadlerlaw.com.